Japan Earthquake Relief

March 15th, 2011

Dear Friends and Neighbors,

The Hammond Museum extends its deepest sympathy and condolences to the Japanese people who have endured deep tragic pain and suffering in the face of such overwhelming disaster. In response to this enormous human emergency, we are instructing our communities to directly help the victims of this disaster through the Japan Society and their reliable non-profit channels for relief and recovery.

Japan Earthquake Relief Fund

Please understand that there are many ways that we can still make a difference to support our distressed neighbors in Japan. Go online to the Japan Earthquake Emergency Fund website for information and please contribute whatever you can. Please note that 100% of your generous tax-deductible contributions will go to organization(s) that directly help victims recover from the devastating effects of the earthquake and tsunamis that struck Japan on March 11, 2011.

You can also contribute to the Japan Earthquake Relief Fund by sending your check to:

Japan Society
333 East 47th Street
New York, New York 10017
Attn: Japan Earthquake Relief Fund

Please make your checks payable to Japan Society and indicate "Japan Earthquake Relief Fund" on the check. For additional information, please email japanrelief@japansociety.org. Thank you for your compassion and understanding during this precious time of need.

Sincerely,

Stomu Miyazaki
