

Chateau Gloria 2005

Friday, August 5, 2016 5:59 PM

2005 Chateau Gloria

Showing light ruby with bricking in the color, the earthy, tobacco and cedar chest nose, with its medium bodied, soft, red berry finish is clearly in a good place today. However, a few more years could help soften the tannins and bring out a bit more in the nose.

90 points - Tasted Jun 28, 2015

2833 Views

With a perfume of blackberries, tobacco, herbs, cassis and black cherry, this medium/full bodied St. Julien is already showing well. A few more years and this should be at perfection.

91 points - Tasted Sep 5, 2011

9984 Views

Average Selling Price: (£113.9) • Find this wine to buy on Wine-Searcher

Read more at:

<http://www.thewinecellarinsider.com/bordeaux-wine-producer-profiles/bordeaux-st-julien/gloria/>