

Hammond Museum and Japan Society of Fairfield County present

The 48th Annual Moonviewing Concert

Bento Box Dinner and Japanese Tea Ceremony

Saturday, August 9th, 2014 6:00pm—10:00pm

The annual Moonviewing concert is a tradition that was begun by Natalie Hays Hammond in 1966. The Japanese Stroll Garden, lit by paper lanterns, is a magical setting for this ancient custom, which every August brings together people and traditions of the East and West. Traditional Japanese music will be played.

Evening Schedule:

- 6:30 Introduction to Tea Ceremony class by Michael McKenna
- 7:00 Bento Box Dinner provided by Kira
- 8:30 Concert in the garden (weather permitting)

BENTO BOX DINNER $20. pp ORDER BY AUGUST 1st

Concert tickets additional. $15. members of Hammond Museum & Japan Society of Fairfield County and $20. for non members

Concert Reservations :

Name _____ Address _____

State _____ Zip code _____, Email _____ phone _____

Concert Tickets # _____ Members @ 15.00 Each _____
 # _____ Non-Members @ 20.00 Each _____

Total Concert $ _____

Dinner Reservations : PLEASE ORDER BY AUGUST 1ST Choose 1

Chicken Bento Box Vegetarian Bento Box Salmon Bento Box

Bento Boxes $20. each Total Bento Boxes $ _____

Method of Payment: _____ [Mastercard and Visa only]

Credit Card# _____, Type Credit Card _____

Expiration Date: _____ zip code _____

Signature: _____

Mail To: Hammond Museum, P.O. Box 326, North Salem NY 10560

Funding for exhibits and programs is made possible, in part, by ArtsWestchester with funds from Westchester County Government. Additional funding from Japanese Chamber of Commerce and Industry (JCCI) and Sigmund Cohn Family Foundation, Inc.

Hammond Museum & Japanese Stroll Garden

28 Deveau Road | North Salem, NY 10560 | (914) 669-5033

WWW.HAMMONDMUSEUM.ORG